ATSS-CDA 05 September 2019

MEMORANDUM FOR STUDENTS

SUBJECT: Welcome Letter

- 1. Congratulations on your selection and welcome to the Fort Bliss Noncommissioned Officer Academy (NCOA). Your selection indicates the Army's trust and confidence in your potential leadership ability to serve in positions of greater responsibility. Our mission, while you are assigned to the NCOA, is to provide challenging academic and performance based assessments in a learner-centric environment with the goal of developing critical and creative thinkers capable of solving problems and building teams to win decisively in a complex world.
- 2. The NCOA is committed to providing you with an excellent training experience. Our facilitators will treat each Soldier as a member of the team, challenge you mentally, physically and treat you with dignity and respect. We accept the challenge in academic and performance oriented excellence and graduate students to the greatest extent possible. We pledge to sharpen your existing leader and war fighting skills, teach and instill the Warrior Ethos: while ingraining the seven core Army Values and enhancing your ability to motivate, train, and lead Soldiers.
- 3. A positive attitude, effective time management skills, and good study habits are great attributes to possess; however, it is up to you to achieve excellence. Upon graduation, your "tool box" will be full of current and relevant information to pass on to those you lead. We hope you will confidently accept more challenging leadership positions that attest to your professional development.
- 4. This is probably one of the few opportunities you will have to work closely with Soldiers from all branches of the Army in addition to our International Partners, so take full advantage of it and get to know as many of your peers as you can. Understanding our differences makes us a much stronger Army!
- 5. Make the most of your experience at the Academy and good luck during the challenging days ahead.

CHAPTER 1 GENERAL INFORMATION

COURSE OVERVIEW: The Basic Leader Course (BLC) is the institutional first step in the Noncommissioned Officer Professional Development System (NCOPDS). The BLC is a 22-academic day course consisting of 169 academic hours within the Program of Instruction (POI). This is non-MOS specific, taught in a non-live-in environment using classroom instruction six days a week. Instruction at the BLC is accomplished through the use of the Army Experiential Learning Model (ELM) methodology. Lessons are facilitated in a small group setting with a collaborative approach, which allows the Soldiers to discover information and then apply it to new and ambiguous situations. Lessons include critical and creative thinking activities and exercises, which aid in learning. The BLC produces competent junior NCOs who are qualified team/section/squad leaders, trainers of leader and warfighting skills. The NCOA graduates are teachers of leader tasks, knowledge and attributes; they are evaluators and counselors who conduct and participate in individual and collective training. BLC instills self-discipline, professional ethics and establishes the foundation for follow-on training in leader development.

- 1-1. PURPOSE: This guide outlines applicable policies and procedures for students reporting the Noncommissioned Officers Academy (NCOA). All students will read this guide. Students are responsible for complying with its contents prior to attending, but not later than 24 hours of arrival at the NCO Academy. Failure to comply with the policies or procedures contained herein could result in an early release from the course.
- 1-2. THE EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING MODEL & CURRICULUM: The Army has shifted its classroom learning from an instructor-centered, lecture-based method to a Learner-centered, experiential methodology that engages the Learners in collaborative practical and problem solving exercises that are relevant to their work environment and provides an opportunity to develop critical 21st Century Soldier Competencies such as initiative, critical thinking, teamwork, and accountability along with the learning content. The POI contains four phases of instruction: Foundations Phase, Leadership Phase, Readiness Phase and Assessment Phase. The Noncommissioned Officer Leader Center of Excellence (NCOL CoE) designed an educational philosophy to challenge the student/ Learners with a thorough academic regime. The POI enhances those skills with which student/ Learners are familiar and develops new skills that student/ Learners will need to perform their duties as Noncommissioned Officers. The BLC focuses on six NCO Common Core Competencies. These competencies are Readiness, Leadership, Training Management, Communications, Operations, and Program Management. BLC is designed to build basic leader and trainer skills needed to lead a team size element; while providing the foundation for further development along the PME learning continuum.
- 1-3. DUTY UNIFORM: The duty uniform for the BLC is the Army Combat Uniform (ACU) with Patrol Cap. (NOTE: ASU will be worn for graduation). Risk assessment/management eliminates unnecessary risk, minimizes fratricide, and avoids accidental injury to Soldiers and damage to equipment. Force protection responsibilities continue around the clock, both on and off duty.

- b. Training safety consists of three interlocking tiers:
- (1) The Commandant: Validating soundness of training and evaluation plans for safety and resolving safety issues.

 - g. Ensuring equipment is properly stored or displayed IAW NCOA Barracks SOP.
 - h. Reporting violations of instructions or policies to the facilitator's COC as soon as possible.
 - i. Briefing the new student leader when leadership positions change.

- 3-3. STUDENT FIRST SERGEANT: Students selected for this responsibility are chosen based upon their academic standing, initiative, motivation, and professionalism. In addition to the responsibilities listed above, other responsibilities include:
 - a. Responsible for the police and orderliness of the Academy area as a whole.
 - b. Having 100% accountability of platoon member at alltimes.

- 3-4. STUDENT PLATOON SERGEANT: The same selection criteria as prescribed for the student first sergeant apply to the student platoon sergeant. Student platoon sergeants are assigned by the SSGLs. In addition to the duties listed under 3-5, other responsibilities include:
 - a. Ensuring platoon members are awake at first call and preparing for formation.
 - b. Having 100% accountability of platoon members at all times.
 - c. Performing additional duties as directed by the facilitator COC.
- 3-5. STUDENT SQUAD/TEAM LEADER DUTIES: Squad Leader/Team Leader positions are assigned and assessed by the SGL. Responsibilities include:

Students performing assignments in leadership positions must ensure that they are familiar with the duties required of the position to which they are assigned. Full cooperation of students is required at all times. Disobedience or failure to respond to orders issued by a student leader could result in a disciplinary release from the course. The students in leadership positions must bring any disobedience or noncompliance situation to the attention of the facilitator COC.

CHAPTER 4 ACADEMY STANDARDS

- 4-1. STANDARDS AND CONDUCT: The NCOA is dedicated to the principle of leading by example.
- a. Military Courtesy: Students will maintain the highest standards of military courtesy while at the Academy. Appropriate greetings and courtesies of visiting officers and NCOs will be observed. One important exception is when classes are in progress. Under no circumstances will a class be disrupted for the purpose of courtesy. The priority of training takes precedence at the Academy and visitors will understand.
- b. Personal Appearance: You are required to attain and maintain a high standard of appearance at all times. Strict adherence to standards outlined in AR 670-1 and 1st AD Standards Guide is the rule. There are no exceptions.
 - c. Honor Code: Honor is the guiding principle of every endeavor involving the profession of the Army.

Integrity is a basic attribute demanded of every Noncommissioned Officer. This personal quality requires, among other things, that "Your work must be your own." Performance assessments are given throughout the course. Each individual student prepares presentations. This work is assessed based on individual effort. Each student's work will be entirely original in every manner. The copying of another student's work violates the intent of the Honor Code. Students are encouraged to work together, utilizing the team concept; however, the final result will be original. The honor system does not cease with academic honor and integrity. It also applies to the observance and adherence to rules, regulations, and policies. To knowingly violate a rule, regulation or policy whether or not this violation is discovered, is a discredit to your word of honor. It is your responsibility as a student and as an NCO to report violations of rules, regulations, and policies immediately to the chain of command. Failure to do so is a violation of the Honor Code, and any violation of the Honor Code is grounds for dismissal.

d. Plagiarism is not the same as cooperation or collaboration. Facilitators often expect, and highly encourage, students to work on assignments collectively and collaboratively. This is okay, as long as whose work being presented is clearly relayed. Plagiarism is to commit literary theft, to steal and pass off as one's own ideas or words, and to create the production of another. When you use someone else's words, you must give the writer or speaker credit (i.e. according to the lesson B103 . . . or according to ADRP 6-0 . . .). See Purdue OWL website for more information on how to avoid plagiarism:

https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/teacher_and_tutor_resources/preventing_plagiarism/avoiding_plagiarism/in_dex.html

Even if you revise or paraphrase the words of someone else, if you copy and paste from another document, if you copy and paste from a prior paper you have written, from a website, or if you use someone else's ideas you must give the author credit. Some Internet users believe that anything available online is public domain. Such is not the case. Ideas belong to those who create and articulate them. To use someone else's words or ideas without giving credit to the originator is stealing.

- e. Cheating includes but is not limited to, copying or giving an assignment to a student to be copied (unless explicitly permitted by the facilitator). Cheating also includes using, supplying, or communicating, in any way, unauthorized materials; including notebooks, cell phones, calculators, computers, or other unauthorized technology, during an assignment or assessment.
- f. Forgery or stealing includes, but is not limited to, gaining unauthorized access to assessments or answers to an exam, altering computer, or grade-book records, or forging signatures for the purpose of academic advantage.
- g. Any unauthorized use, online posting, distribution, publication, or sale of course material is strictly prohibited. Students are prohibited from photographing, dictating, copying, emailing, or otherwise reproducing faculty materials or student work without permission from the NCOL CoE.
- h. The determination that a student has engaged in academic dishonesty shall be based on specific evidence provided by the classroom facilitator or other cadre, taking into consideration written materials, observation, or information from others. Students found to have engaged in academic dishonesty shall be subject to academic penalties
- 4-2. COURSE GRADUATION CRITERIA AND REQUIRMENTS: There are six graded assessments that contribute to the overall student GPA and four mandatory Non-GPA assessments. Students who fail to achieve a 70% GPA by failing any assessment will participate in a reassessment. Students must achieve a 70% or higher on the following performance assessments to receive a "GO" rating:

Soldiers who fail any reassessment will be recommended for dismissal. The NCOA Deputy Commandant is the dismissal authority and the commandant is the appellate authority for all dismissals. Facilitators will conduct the reassessment after necessary retraining/study hall. Any reassessment will be accomplished outside of the course hours to preclude the student missing any scheduled classes. Soldiers who require and pass a reassessment will receive the minimum passing score for that event, and the facilitator will automatically remove the student from class honors consideration. Students who fail an initial evaluation will receive mandatory study hall and a reassessment. You must retake the assignment in its entirety and receive a passing score. Students who fail the initial and reassessment on the same evaluation, will be considered for elimination from the course. Students who fail an evaluation and pass the reassessment, will receive 70% as the highest score for that evaluation, and dropped from consideration for honors. Students who fail any assessment or fail to turn in an assessment on time, are not eligible for the Commandant's List or the Superior Academic Achievement in PART III block a. of the DA Form 1059.
- 4-4. INSPECTIONS: Military inspections are required to ensure adherence to standards and overall preparedness. In the event of a serious incident taking place due to failure to follow proper protocol, the student's chain of command will be notified, and they may be recommended for dismissal from the Basic Leader Course. If there are any questions concerning pass privileges for scheduled holidays do not hesitate to ask your SGL.

Students assigned to Fort Bliss will need to obtain a meal card from their parent unit.
- 4-10. SERVICE SCHOOL ACADEMIC EVALUATION REPORT (DA FORM 1059): The Academic Evaluation Report (AER) is designed to portray the accomplishment and the leadership potential that an individual demonstrates while attending the NCOA. The Academy prepares the AER immediately prior to graduation or in conjunction with dismissal. The student must ensure that they have a copy of the AER in possession prior to departing the Academy area. It is the student's responsibility to ensure all personal data is correct on the AER prior to leaving the Academy area. Students who receive any adverse counseling are not eligible for the Commandant's List in PART III block a. Students who receive two or more adverse counselings are not eligible for the Superior Academic Achievement in PART III block a. However, the commandant may withhold the Superior Academic Achievement rating from a student with only one adverse counseling that is more than a minor infraction. Students that rate in the upper 40 percent will receive a class standing assessment within part III, block a. Students rating below 40 percent (in other words, "Achieved Course Standards" or "Failed to Achieve Course Standards" box check selections) will not receive a class standing assessment within part III, block a.

- 4-12. ATTENDANCE: Disciplinary elimination will result from any unauthorized absences after being late for formation two times. Attendance at all classes is mandatory. Soldiers cannot miss any graduation requirements. Students missing class must make the material up on their own prior to graduation, if the Commandant feels you cannot make up the time you may be considered for release from the course. Attendance at training events is mandatory for all students. Any student who has quarters or any emergency that causes him/her to miss four or more academic hours (special circumstances will be considered on a case-by-case basis by the Commandant) of programmed instruction will be considered for release from the course. The Commandant determines the release based on the recommendation of the Deputy Commandant. Reasons for a medical release include injury or illness resulting in unreasonable delay and/or loss of training time, or being prohibited from participating in any required training. Medical releases are not adverse in nature. Released students may return to the course as soon as the condition is resolved.
- c. Academic: Academic release is based upon when a student fails to achieve course standard on an initial and reassessment for the same evaluation or fails more than two reassessments. Academic releases are considered adverse IAW AR 600-8-19. Students failing required NCOPDS for academic reasons will be removed from the promotion standing list. The Commandant will determine release from the course based on the recommendation of the Deputy Commandant. Students released for disciplinary reasons are not allowed to return to any NCOPDS Course for a period of six months. Additionally, students eliminated for cause may be barred from reenlistment, receive non-judicial punishment, or be reclassified (Ref AR 350-1).
